Losbox, July 17.
In the House of Commons last night, Lord Study made an important statement. He said a reply had been sent to the United States document as to the matter of naturalization, and the Ministers were ready to accept the American interpretation of the question. He thought, therefore, no mi-understanding possible between the two countries. Lord Study said he had declined to make attent at present as the Royal Commission was considered at the general subject and was still in sees on, not 1 or the additional reason that time will not occur the presence of the bill at the present session of Parliament.
